HERCULES.

J. A. Sherrod has gone to Oklahoma to look at some cattle he is thinking of exchanging his farm for.

J. W. Wilhoit of Longrun passed through town en route from Chadwick, where he had been to the railroad.
While he was on the trip the rain put Beaver out of her banks and several wagons were camped there two and a half days.

A Mr. Abernathy passed through town Friday on his way from Oklahoma to his home near Proteem.

H. F. Bray and family have moved back to old Taney after a stay of six six years near Hanna, Oklahoma.

Rev. G. A. Roberts failed to fill his appointment Saturday and Sunday.

Martin Holcomb of Brown Branch was transacting business in Hercules and looking for a horse swap.

M. Adamson and Graden Maggard have gone to Ozark with a bunch of cattle.

G. E. Kester and brother are visiting at Hercules.

It is reported that Pierce Hodges and Roxie Sherrod were married yesterday. We extend congratulations.

We wish to call your attention to the fact that most infectious diseases such as whooping cough, diphtheria and scarlet fever are contracted when the child has a cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will quickly cure a cold and greatly lessen the danger of contracting these diseases. This remedy is famous for its cures of colds. It contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given to a child with implicit confidence. Sold by all dealers.

WALNUT SHADE.

We have been having some rain and high water. No mail for two days last week, as a result.

Sunday school at the Shade every Sunday. Come out everybody and help and we will have a good Sunday school.

Elbert Stockstill of Highlandville, visited in the East Scribner home two days last week.

Leonard Cummings has returned home from Kansas City, where he went to visit his aunt, Mrs. Tilda Weatherman.

Several of our men and boys had to attend court last week.

Mrs. V. A. Cummings and children have returned from Omaha, Ark., where they went to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey, and her sister, Mrs. R.
F. Powers. The Ramseys will spend the winter with Mrs. Powers.

Jesse Heuszel of Hilda is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. J. Cummings.

George Allen has moved his things down to Boy Duncan's, so now they will keep batch together.

Literary at the Shade every Friday night. Everyone is invited to come and help out.

The oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed-Keithley died the 3rd of December.
The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community.

A Des Moines man had an attack of muscular rheumatism in his shoulder.
A friend advised him to go to Hot Springs. That meant an expense of $150.00 or more. He sought for a quicker and cheaper way to cure it and found it in Chamberlain's Liniment. Three days after the first application of this liniment he was well.
For sale by all dealers.

GARBER.

Mahlon Strader has bought the old Jesse Jones farm just above Gretna and is fixing to go to work on it.

And now we read about the Spugs.
We fail to find the word in the lexicon.
Is it masculine, feminine or neuter in gender? We opine that it is feminine, as Mrs. Belmont, the president's wife and other notables of the 900 class are working it up. The cause seems to be good enough, but whether the spugists, spugeteers, or whatever they may be, can do us any good remains to be seen later on. In fact, we have been spugged before this, we think, and any more spugging may spug us out.

This is the coldest morning of the winter so far, with a heavy frost and ground frozen hard.

W. F. Fronabarger is at Springfield, taking treatment for catarrh.

Mrs. Ella Cantwell returned home from Atkins, Ark., last Saturday, where she had been visiting the past two weeks.

Roy Dykes returned home with his mother from Eldorado Springs where he attended the funeral of a brother.

Well, after all the weather did get a freeze on itself. That is preferable to so much rain. Old Roark was past fording one day last week, the biggest spree it has been on for over two years.
No damage done that we hear of.

Mrs. Wilson and her daughter Inez went to Marionville last week. Both returned home Thursday. Miss Inez may go back there to school after the holidays.

Mrs. Rosa Henry of Seymour came in Sunday to spend a few days visiting her parents, W. W. Walden and wife.

Mr. Wilson, the Powersite man came out last Thursday and went to Levi Russell's. As the big rains came on that day and the next we do not know what became of him.

Jas. Capps killed a hog last Saturday morning and then all hands shot it off.
He realized $12.00 for the hog—about 120 pounds—besides lots of fun.

Several children and young people have the whooping cough and are in no way stung with it, as they want to divide out a good thing. But it is having its effect on the school.

Preparations are being made by Mrs.
Anderson to give a Christmas entertainment in the day time, and if the whooping cough does not play too big a part among the children a good time is expected.

If you are troubled with chronic constipation, the mild and gentle effect of Chamberlain's Tablets makes them especially suited to your case. For sale by all dealers.

NANCE.

The mill at this place has been doing a rushing business, as a few days ago something got wrong with the engine and the hands all rushed off and left it. Some of them came back after a while, but the engineer has not been seen in town since.

Jess Miller has commenced the erection of a new dwelling on his home farm.

Jeff McCall of Oklahoma was in town one day the past week. His face was quite familiar to most of us, as he used to live below here on Big Creek.

N. B. Bonner has had Jas. Wolf painting his house on his home farm.

C. M. Ayres has moved to the lower Russell Morris farm.

Several of our stock men have been hauling cotton seed meal from Chadwick.

Will Miller is moving to the farm he bought from Ben Welch. Uncle Ben will move to Pond Fork.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs.
Emory Braly since our last writing.

Jim Castoe has moved up the creek to the Hibble place. Mr. Keys occupies the place Castoe vacated.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Mayhew, of Beaver county, Okla., came in recently looking for a location here. They are now at the home of Mrs. Mayhew's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miller.

Frank Fitzpatrick has been buying cows to stock his farm near this place.

The newly married couple, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jones, will reside on the J. W. Blankenship farm northeast of town.

Joe Wilhoit of Lutie, Mo., was in town one day the bygone week.

Sam Herd and Arch and Andrew Grin preached at the Box school house last Saturday night.

When you have a bilious attack give Chamberlain's Tablets a trial. They are excellent. For sale by all dealers.

SCHOOL OF THE OZARKS.

Everybody has been busy on the hill, since the Thanksgiving vacation, getting ready for Christmas.

We played games Saturday night.
Among them were parchesi, hearts, crokinole and checkers.

Herbert Yandell went home Saturday and returned Monday.

Fay Stires led the the Christian Endeavor meeting Sunday night.

Several of the boys have been having nightmares lately. Others have been talking in their sleep. Herbert Yandell said "Sic 'em, sic 'em, sic 'em!" Andrew Pickett said "Pig, pig, pig."

Lillie and Bessie Pickett's parents visited them Tuesday afternoon.

The girl's choir of the church will give a song service Sunday night, December 14th.

The following program was rendered Saturday afternoon, December sixth:

Story,	Ralph Simonton.
Declamation,	Edna Vanzandt.
Essay,	Lily Pickett.
News of the Week,	Harry Cook.
Story,	Maggie Choate.
Declamation,	Alice Franklin.
Essay,	Edwin Whitsett.
Paper,	Lyman Felkins.
Biography,	Jessie Reynolds.
Reading,	Ruby Hart.
Essay,	Belle Lambeth.

You will find that druggists everywhere speak well of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. They know from long experience in the sale of it that it can always be depended upon, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all dealers.

Obituary.

Little Thomas Keithley died at the home of his parents about 8 o'clock Wednesday morning, December 3rd, 1913, aged 9 years, 9 months and 20 days. He leaves a father, mother, little brother and many relatives and friends to mourn his death.

Rev. Melvin Cook conducted the funeral services and the remains were laid to rest in the Oak Ridge cemetery at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

The little fellow was a bright, obedient son and pupil and was loved by schoolmates, teacher and every one.
We extend our sympathy to the betraved. It is a sweet consolation to know that he has "Gone to a land of pure delight,

Where saints immortal reign,
Where infinite day excludes the night And pleasures banish pain.
"There, in the Shepherd's bosom, White as the drifted snow,
Is the little lamb we missed one morn-
From the household flock below."
